

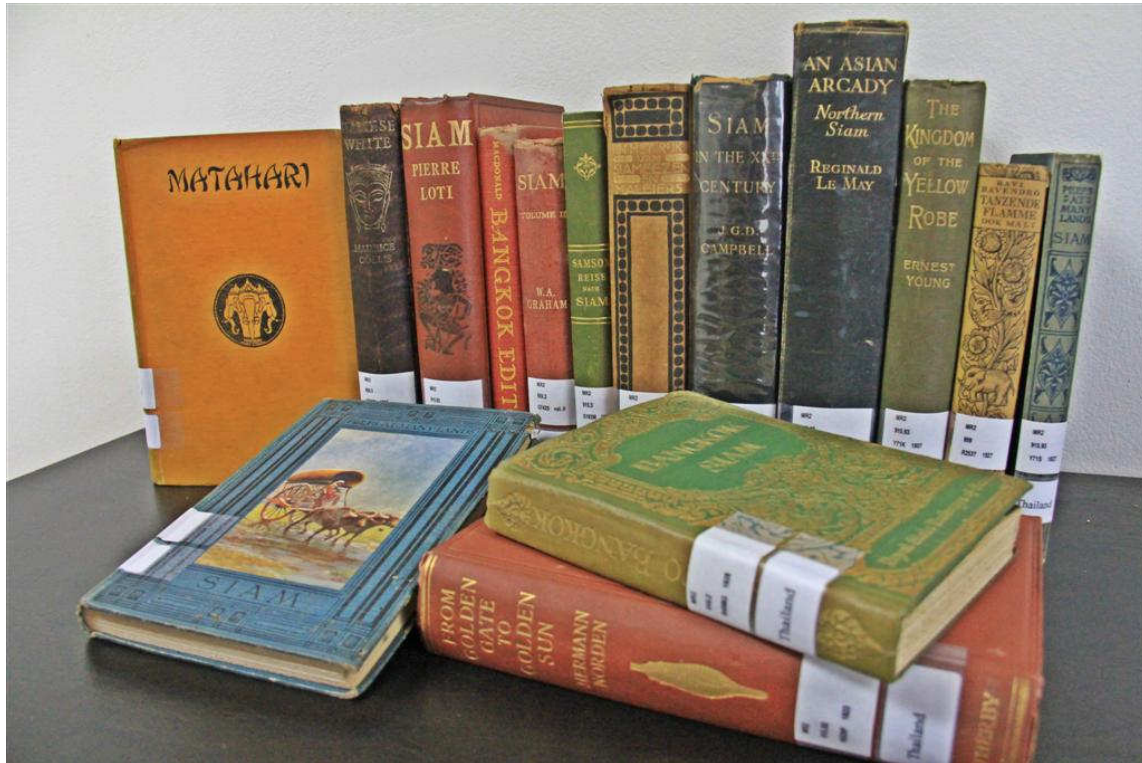

Exhibition of Rare Books at The Siam Society

from the collections of Prince Prisdang and Mom Luang Manich Jumsai

27 June - 26 July 2018

The opening of the 3rd exhibition of old and rare books from Prince Prisdang and Mom Luang Manich Jumsai's collection will take place on 27th June at 5.30 pm. These books are on permanent loan to the Siam Society by Dr. Sumet and his family.

This exhibition will include books on Siam published between 1900 and 1950 (Rama V - IX). Altogether over sixty titles have been selected for this exhibition. The books are in English, French, German and Dutch. Exciting and classic titles like "The Land of the White elephant", "Mission Pavie Indo-Chine" and "A Half Century Among the Siamese and the Laos", will be of great interest to book lovers of Asia-Pacific history and travel. We owe much to the adventurous travelers and writers who took a keen interest in the far away land so that we can understand what Siam used to be like at the turn of the last century.

The Rare Books Exhibition will be on view from 28 June - 26 July (except Sunday and Monday) from 10 am - 5 pm.
